

Please do not allow such a challenge to go through.
It is a breach of my right to privacy when I get a phone call at 8:30 in the evening from some bank wanting to solicit some program they have going on. If I want their services, like any other citizen, I will go to them and request them. Thank you for your time.